

Title: Upstate Proptech Brokerage seeking Geospatial Expert/Team

“Be part of an upstate NY rural-first real estate search engine, using your wide variety of GIS and development skills to help build the future of rural real estate search and match. Off-Market Consultants, an upstate NY real estate brokerage, and Luxmatch, a rural marketplace, is currently looking for recent graduates to seasoned professionals. We are seeking talented and curious professionals proficient in some or all of the following areas: GEOAI, LLM's, open-sourced/licensed spatial tools, remote sensing, spatial decision support systems, logic modeling, and suitability analysis. We are looking for highly driven, innovative candidates that are hungry to help change the future. You can reach our CEO, Evan Spero, at evan@luxmatch.com, or by cell at 518.929.9000.”

Regards,

Evan Spero
